Hi (b) (6)

So from media reporting it appears UACS are largely exempted and people without docs cannot present at POEs. Considering DHS/CBP is literally implementing this order as we speak do we really not have answers to these questions?

CBP has issued statements that also do not seem to give much clarity. Have OFO and BP agents been given guidance on how to implement the order?

Hi (b) (6), (b) (7)(C)

Wanted to follow up on the 2pm call. First, thanks for making sure we got it. That was very helpful. Staff were not allowed to ask questions, so I was told to follow up with you.

There seems to be significant confusion on who will be returned to Mexico potentially. I think we need a call to discuss the following questions. Although in writing might be easier.

Mr Cuccinelli said the following:

- Agreement with Mexico: (b) (7)(E)
 - (b) (7)(E): accelerating repatriations to other countries, will not go to BP station, will go to a port of entry, potentially for removal
1. This contradicts, what the President and Acting Secretary Wolf said, who specifically said (b) (7)(E) with the President specifically saying: (b) (7)(E)
(b) (7)(E) So we would need clarification. Did Mr Cuccinelli just mean (b) (7)(E) via MPP? That would make sense but he did not state it.
 2. (b) (7)(E)
 3. How will this “accelerated repatriation” work? It was not specified. Are these voluntary returns?
 - a. As these people wait for flights where are they held?
 - b. What if they claim credible fear? Is there any due process? Access to counsel?
 - c. If (b) (7)(E) are actually subject to the accelerated repatriations, we would need to understand how this is applied to them.
 4. Since the goal is to keep people out of BP custody and it is unsafe, are PACR and HARP being suspended?
 5. Can people without travel docs still come to the port of entry to make a fear claim?
