Dear Judge Nadkarni: I represent a bona fide asylum seeker pro bono; client lives in (b) (6) and we (b) (6) filed a timely request to change venue. Judge (b) (6) has rejected the motion several time for minor reasons. We conceded removability, sent a I-589, gave current address. The case is now on for a master hearing May 20, 2013 and I am trying to be heard telephonically but no one at (b) (6) EOIR even picks up phone. I tried the voice mail system but the system does not recognize (b) (6) as anyone who works there. I am facing a possible in absentia order for an indigent client. My complaint is first, the utter inability of the Clerk's Office there to field calls. And second, Judge (b) (6) overly rigid rules for changing venue. I am happy to submit the pleadings to date to show the reasons for (b) (6) rejection of the motion to change venue but my greater concern is being heard telephonically on May 20th and I cannot even get anyone to speak to about that.
