JOINT STATEMENT CONCERNING THE COURT’S SEPTEMBER 6, 2019 MINUTE ORDER

The parties hereby submit the following joint statement in response to the Court's minute order issued following oral argument on September 6, 2019, requesting that "the parties shall submit a joint proposal regarding procedures for maintaining the status quo with respect to enforcement of the July 23rd Notice while the Plaintiffs' preliminary injunction is under review."

Defendants represent the following: Having met and conferred, and the Court having indicated at the September 6 hearing that it would require up to "three weeks" to issue a decision concerning the pending motion for preliminary injunction, and given the impossibility of ensuring compliance with the Court's proposal at the September 6 hearing that Defendants provide the Court and Plaintiffs the name of every individual subject to the July 23 Notice within 24 hours of their becoming subject to the Notice until the Court issues its written decision, Defendants will not begin implementing the July 23 Notice until September 27, 2019, three weeks (21 days) from September 6, 2019.

In light of Defendants' representation, the parties agree that no further action or procedures are necessary to facilitate the Court's issuance of a written decision at this time.
