DEFENDANTS’ UNOPPOSED MOTION TO STAY ORDER

In this Freedom of Information Act (“FOIA”) case, by Order dated August 29, 2018, this Court ordered defendants to produce a Vaughn index and supporting dispositive motion by September 29, 2018. None of the defendants, however, has completed processing plaintiff’s FOIA requests. Although certain searches for responsive documents have been undertaken, all three agencies intend to do further searches for responsive information. In order to narrow the issues that would require judicial resolution, defendants have forwarded to plaintiff proposed search terms to be used in completing the searches.

Plaintiff has stated that it will respond to defendants’ proposed search terms on or before September 28, 2018. The parties will then try and resolve any differences, and once any differences are resolved, the searching will promptly begin.

For the foregoing reasons, defendants requests that this unopposed motion to stay the August 29, 2018 Order be granted, and that the parties be ordered to submit a joint proposed schedule for further proceedings on or before October 15, 2018.

Respectfully submitted,
